Drew Pearson is still here—just moved a little. And by the way, did you know that you can't find him in the San Jose dailies? It's an exclusive with "The Press".

There seems to be a movement on foot to get the sheriff (town constable) look more "bone side" by wearing his star. We know he has the galluses for it—or "braces" as our English subscriber would say.

Speaking of our English subscriber and many of you will remember him—F. V. Perrott, who lived in Campbell for many years—we hope that he will write a letter to "The Press" soon with the latest news about his family and the section of Durham in which he lives.

Last Saturday was a hard day on dogs in Campbell. One was hit near the La Rinconada Golf Course about 8:30 a. m. by a fast driver who did not stop, and another appealing young canine was struck at 7:30 p. m. on Tubby Lane. This driver did not stop either and in both cases there were small children in close proximity to the dogs.

When Buddy Bachman, now home with a navy discharge visiting his parents, registered for the selective service, Mrs. Frank Anderson, wife of a former Campbell physician, did the registering. Her husband, now Comdr. Anderson, U. S. N. is senior medical officer at the Navy Separation Center, Camp Shoemaker, having returned from overseas service. After traveling half way around the world the two Campbell men met again when Comdr. Anderson signed Bachman's discharge. Buddy must feel that the Andersons pop up in his life at the most amazing times.

In honor of William Henley's birthday last Thursday, the Grammar School teachers had a birthday picnic after school in the Santa Cruz mountains at the cabins of Mrs. Ross Trowbridge and Mrs. Margaret Singleton. Everything would have been fine but Mr. Henley tried too hard to escape from a group of teachers bent on birthday spanking and now he is creaking around with a pulled ligament.

Our small fry was jubilant over being allowed to go to the grocery store alone. She recounted to all who would listen for several days that she had gone to the store for "a face of lettuce".

Television and "walkie talkies" are all very fine but what the post-war world needs in the way of gadgets, in our opinion, is a device for cleaners to put on your clothes that doesn't take 45 minutes to extricate.

The brightest spots in town—Jack Murdock's neckties! The latest one was sent him by Lowell Benson from Seattle and it really hurts the eyes.

Edna F. Smith Honored At Kiwanis Luncheon

In conjunction with National Newspaper Week, the Kiwanis club on Tuesday paid tribute to Mrs. Edna F. Smith, retired publisher and editor of the Campbell Press. Acting as chairman for the occasion, Dr. W. I. Merrill, presented Mrs. Smith with a certificate of honor attendance signed by members, a ten-piece lucite dresser set and a large bouquet of zinnias and marigolds. Mrs. Smith bears the distinction of being the only woman honorary member of the group.

To surprise the ex-publisher more, the Club arranged to have her daughter, Mrs. Walter Krohn, of San Francisco, present for the luncheon.

T. A. Cutting, 1st vice president, gave the members a sketch of Mrs. Smith's life which touched upon her girlhood in St. Cloud, Minnesota, where she and her late husband, Harry C. Smith, knew each other and graduated at the same time from the State College of Minnesota there. They were married in 1905 and that same year bought a newspaper in Pingree, North Dakota. Their daughter, Wilma (Bea), was born there.

In 1911 the town burned down and the Smiths moved to Campbell where they purchased the Campbell Interurban Press. They were charter members of the Grange here and joined the Congregational church, in whose choir Mr. Smith sang. Mrs. Smith has twice served as president of the Country Women's Club.

Mr. Cutting stressed the high journalistic standards maintained over the long period of time and the service which the paper has been to the community.

At this meeting Rev. Robert Carlson was inducted into Kiwanis and also furnished a cornet solo. Rev. Lawrence Osborne, accompanied by Mrs. Dave Sanders, sang two numbers.

Ben Davidson had as his guest, his son-in-law, Bruce Griswold, who was recently discharged from the navy on points; also present was Martin Allen, present publisher of "The Campbell Press".

New officers, elected at this meeting, are: president, Ross Trowbridge; vice president, Jim Dent; treasurer, Joe Agostinho; directors, D. H. Cramer, Joe Dahl, Ben Davidson, Guy Farley, Joe Gomes, William Henley and Fred Jones.

Next week's speaker will be F. L. Willson, manager of the San Jose branch of Blake, Moffitt and Towne, with Bud Levenburg as chairman.

Mrs. Jane Graham's second grade class room won the $2.00 prize for having the most mothers present.

Principal speaker for the afternoon was Miss Dorothy Merriman who spoke of the necessity of training the youth of today to become the world citizens of tomorrow. Following this, the executive board members were hostesses to the group.

Prior to this regular meeting the executive board held a pot luck luncheon at the president's home at which time plans were discussed for the coming year which include the purchase of an audiometer for the school.

Local Fruit Workers Return To Work

Workers at the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association returned to their jobs today after a strike of three weeks' duration, involving 2500 dried fruit workers, 28 plants and a huge number of growers. The decision to return to work was reached after receiving word that the dried fruit packers accepted the recent conditions submitted by the Union.

A 7½ cent hourly increase in wages will be given the workers when they return to work, with the remainder of the 15 cent increase, demanded by the Union at the start of the strike, to be arbitrated by an impartial arbitrator, selected by representatives of the packers and Union.

Altho some of the plants affected by the strike may not be able to take all returning workers at once, G. K. Schrader, superintendent of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association says that his company plans on using all of its employees who return.

Appliance Shop To Open

Within the next few days, V. J. Foudray will begin construction on a combined electrical appliance sales and service plant and cabinet shop at 150 S. Winchester road. This property is adjacent to the Copper Kettle Donut Company.

The building will have a 25 foot frontage and the lumber and materials for the construction are already on the location. No time has yet been set for the opening date.

Foudray, a Campbell man, was at one time manager of the Union Oil Station at the corner of Campbell and Central avenues.

Fire Department Plans Barbecue

At the regular monthly meeting of the Volunteer Fire Department held at the station house last Monday evening at 7:30, plans were made for a barbecue on Sunday, Oct. 14, at the home of Jack Murdock on Budd avenue. Honorary members will be welcome at the affair which will begin at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Arrangements were made for a fire drill to be held at 9 a. m. on Sunday, Oct. 21, and two new members were added to the group: Seymour Wirth and Martin Allen.

Recently returned from service in 24 foreign countries, Warren Turner gave the firemen a resume of his travels.

Manuel Cabral Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cabral, Sunnyside avenue, has sent word to his parents that he has been promoted from corporal to sergeant. He is now stationed in Camp Hara Machida, Japan, after serving in New Guinea and the Philippine Islands. The newly-promoted sergeant is well known in Campbell, having graduated from the Campbell High School and Heald's College in San Jose. His brother, a chief petty officer in the Navy is stationed at Honolulu.

Yesterday morning Mrs. R. Y. Maxon, Sunny Oaks avenue, escaped without injury when the car she was driving collided with a truck owned by Nelson Brothers Trucking Company at the intersection of Sunny Oaks avenue and Los Gatos-Santa Clara road. Altho no repairs will be necessary for the truck, Mrs. Maxon's car was badly damaged.

Sgt. Arthur C. Howes Expected Home Soon

T/Sgt. Arthur C. Howes, Route 2, box 745, is a member of the 3731st Quartermaster Trucking Company which has recently been awarded the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque for the work it did in China hauling cargo to Chinese ground forces and American air forces over inadequate roads in all kinds of weather. When the Japanese offensive began in Central China last fall, the truckmen continued operations without regard to personal safety. They were the last men out of Liuchow, leaving only a few minutes before Jap patrols approached the airfield.

The citation for the award reads "The 3731st was primarily responsible for saving the maximum possible U. S. cargo from abandonment by steadfastly continuing to shuttle from Chin Chen Chiang to Tushan, from Tushan to Tuyun and from Tuyun to Kweiyang, just ahead of Japanese forward patrols as each town fell to the enemy."

Before going to China a year ago this unit served one year in India where they completed 200 convoy missions.

Mrs. Caroline Howes, the sergeant's mother, expects him home in November, possibly by Thanksgiving. Howes, who attended school in Campbell, was employed at the Tom Martin Company here before entering the army.

Miss Roberta Evans To Wed

Miss Roberta Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Evans, N. Central avenue, will be married to night in San Mateo to James W. Johnson, Warrant Officer, United States Army, of Preston, Idaho.

The ceremony will be a simple one performed at the Latter Day Saint's minister's home with only a few close relatives present. After a brief wedding trip, the young couple will be at home in San Mateo until late December when they will leave to live in Idaho. Miss Evans has been teaching school in San Mateo.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, a Campbell pioneer family, will entertain with a reception in honor of the newly-married pair.

Sgt. Mervyn Nicholls To Visit

Sgt. Mervyn O. Nicholls, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Nicholls, 250 Campbell avenue, is reported on his way home from Austria after a 3½ years' absence.

As aircraft and engine repair man, Sergeant Nicholls, was with the 79th P-47 Thunderbolt Group of the 9th Air Force Headquarters, which was in the headlines early in August as the group to which Pierre Laval surrendered after his historic flight from Spain. This group has had a colorful war record, participating in five invasions and 10 campaigns and serving under three different air forces from 50 bases in eight countries.

In the army since May, 1942, he has served overseas since January, 1943, and on his European-African-Middle East theater ribbon are 5 battle participation stars. He has served in North Africa, Sardinia and Italy.

A graduate of Campbell Union High School, he was employed at a foundry in San Jose before entering the army.

Traffic Violators Fined By Justice Of The Peace

Eight motorists were fined during the month of September in Campbell, an examination of Justice of the Peace Blaine's docket reveals. Four of these were for double parking and four were failure to fully observe arterial stop signs.

A discharged soldier attending San Jose State college pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving and was referred to Adult Probation Officer Max Watson for investigation and recommendation of sentence.

Three violations of the ordinance making it a misdemeanor to be drunk outside the city limits and within the confines of Santa Clara county occurred during the month and the violators fined.

A $100 fine was levied against the proprietor of a Campbell roadside tavern for the operation of an illegal slot machine.

On Saturday night a woman swore to a complaint charging her male escort with intoxication and battery.

Fire Destroys Home On Kennedy Ave.

Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed a house at 23 Kennedy avenue owned by Charles Sanchez last Thursday afternoon. It was occupied by the Hartman family who lost all their possessions with the exception of a small table radio.

The Red Cross, the Pentecostal church and many neighbors were prompt with offers of aid for the former inhabitants who left Thursday night to stay in Sunnyside with relatives. There was no insurance on either the house or the contents.

Mrs. H. E. Eddlemon who lived next door at 191 Kennedy lost her garage and picket fence in the blaze. Volunteer firemen were hampered by the absence from town of several of its members.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Aker, N. Milton avenue, returned home September 21 from a two weeks' vacation which included jaunts to Reno, Sacramento, Lake Tahoe and over the Tiago Pass to Yosemite Park. They were accompanied to Yosemite by their daughter, Miss Beverly Parker, who enrolled at San Jose State college this week.

Miss Rachel Spradling of "Rachel's" is leaving tomorrow for a combined business and pleasure trip. She will spend a week at the beach near Los Angeles and then do some buying for the store, returning to Campbell in about ten days.

Henry Robertson Serves On "Sailfish"

Henry K. Robertson, motor machinist's mate, 2/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sam Robertson, San Tomas road, served aboard the submarine USS SAILFISH on a war patrol during which she sank three ships and damaged another, to win the Presidential Unit Citation.

The SAILFISH defied an escort of destroyers and cruisers and a mountainous sea kicked up by a typhoon to sink a 22,500-ton Japanese aircraft carrier of the Kasuga class after a 10-hour battle.

A few days later she sank a 5,800-ton cargo ship and damaged a 7,000-tonner. She was forced to take evasive action to avoid depth charges from an escort vessel.

About a week later the SAILFISH sighted six heavily loaded freighters escorted by two destroyers and a patrol boat. With her torpedoes running low she picked out a 7,300-tonner and scored two hits to sink her.

Robertson is now stationed in Philadelphia but expects to make his home in Campbell when he receives a discharge.

EDITORIAL

October 1st to 8th is National Newspaper Week and The Campbell Press is proud to be a small part of the great American press which has played a responsible part in the winning of the war and will continue to play that part through the difficult times ahead.

The weekly papers, while they have not sent correspondents overseas or brought you the biggest war news first, have done their share in constantly publicizing the things that could be done on the home front to aid victory.

With the coming of peace, the weekly, tho still constantly alert to national needs for reconversion cooperation, can now center more attention upon its own locality, recording the deeds of its citizens—some trivial, others heroic—but all part of the warp and woof of its life, to give the community a true picture of itself which will aid in its development.

The writer of our guest editorial this week is Herbert M. Shadle, former owner of the Campbell Pharmacy, who has been a resident of this community since 1928. Mr. Shadle, who is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and of the Kiwanis Club, is one of Campbell's outstanding civic leaders and his efforts for the welfare of Campbell have been, and are, untiring.

Rev. Robert Carlson of the Congregational church will write next week's guest editorial.

COMMUNITY AND WAR CHEST FUND

by Herbert M. Shadle, Community Chairman

During the month of October all of our energies should be turned toward achieving success, in attaining our goal, in this great humanitarian drive for funds. This is the one time in the year when every group can unite in one supreme effort. The War Chest is your Chest. It is your opportunity to support 21 War Related Causes plus Home Front Welfare Agencies.

The war is over. We thank God for that. But the war on want, disease and suffering is only starting. We must see to it that our returning soldiers are properly cared for and our home front agencies are made strong enough to carry on during the critical days of reconversion.

Here in our own community we are very fortunate in having many loyal workers who are giving time and money to make this drive a success. Let it be understood that this is all volunteer work. No one is receiving a penny for himself. To these workers there go our heartfelt thanks. Thanks should also go to the Campbell Water Co. for letting us use their office; to the Campbell Press, for their fine publicity; to the Campbell Theatre, for their friendly help; and last, but not least, we thank each individual giver. If it were not for these gifts there would be no Chest. The boys at home and in the far flung places of the world thank you. The children, who will be helped to be better citizens through the local use of this money, also thank you. The sick and homeless in foreign lands thank you.

We ask you to give generously. It is such a privilege to live in a land where we are free and able to give. Most of us are more able to give now than ever before. Again let me thank you and ask that you "give generously in Victory."

FARM WAGE DELIRIUM

WASHINGTON.—Live-wire Republican Sen. Ralph Brewster of Maine recently telephoned hard-working Assistant Secretary of Labor Carl Moran, also from Maine, but a Democrat.

"Portland is among the nine distress cities of the country," Senator Brewster reminded Moran. "As you know Portland shipyard workers have been dismissed from their jobs wholesale. Meanwhile, farmers up in Aroostook county can't get anyone to bring in their potatoes. What can you do about it?"

"What are they paying for farm labor in Aroostook county," asked the assistant secretary of labor; "still four cents?"

"No," replied the senator from Maine, "there's a guaranteed wage of $12 a day."

Assistant Secretary Moran said he would do his best to switch some workers up to the potato farms. However, he might well have replied that the labor department was that in name only and that it actually had almost nothing to do with labor.

For the fact is that, under Miss Perkins, the labor department was stripped of most of its labor duties. The War Labor board is separate and independent, and, most important of all, the U. S. employment service is under the War Manpower commission. Thus, Assistant Secretary of Labor Moran had to turn to an outside agency, the U. S. employment service, to try to get discharged shipyard workers to help harvest the Aroostook potato crop.

This, in turn, has brought out another difficulty affecting not merely Maine but the entire nation. Most war workers, drawing $1 to $2 an hour plus overtime and bonuses, don't want to go back to the farm and farm wages. The labor shortage on the farms, even after V-J Day, is as acute as ever. Farm wages are higher than ever, though still a long way from shipyard and aviation factory pay. So, somehow or other, either farm wages must go up, or war workers must go back to less money on the farm. In the former case, the farmers will have to get more for their crops, which, of course, means a higher cost of living in the city.

Ambassadors' Wives.

Last week this column reported that Mrs. Ed Pauley, wife of the U. S. reparations ambassador to Moscow and former treasurer of the Democratic national committee, was listed to receive $25 a day expenses while accompanying her husband to Russia. Since then, I have received further information that Mrs. Pauley, although listed by the state department as an official member of the party, declined to accept the $25 per diem.

However, I still believe it a highly debatable point, when a million or so G.I.s are not permitted to have their wives come abroad, that American higher-ups should take their wives with them to overseas war areas. After all, the average American soldier now occupying Germany or Japan has not seen his wife for more than a year.

When the Pauley reparations mission arrived in western Europe, the party was split up, because of limited accommodations in Moscow.

One group, including some of the best experts on reparations, were told to remain in Frankfurt, Germany, because there was no room to house them in Moscow. But Mrs. Pauley, despite limited accommodations, went on to Moscow.

Later, she also visited Potsdam for the Big Three session. She was the only American wife present. Mrs. Truman and Mrs. Byrnes, wife of the secretary of state, remained at home. And during the last session of the Big Three, Mrs. Pauley sat in the gallery, a privileged witness to the historic ceremony. Many U. S. and British experts who had spent weeks preparing for this big climax and who had burned midnight oil whipping the agreement into shape, were barred from seeing the windup.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Johnson, N. Milton, returned Sunday from a two weeks' vacation at Weaverville.

Welcome Home!

2,393 veterans have already come back to work for the Southern Pacific

We are justly proud of the 20,013 Southern Pacific men and women who joined the armed forces. Those who have been discharged, we gladly welcome back to the Southern Pacific.

Our policy in re-employing veterans is very simple. The Southern Pacific Company wants its family together again.

While these men and women were away, their seniority advanced just as if they were here on the job. Their continuity of service has been maintained for pension purposes. And Southern Pacific has arranged with the Veterans Administration to participate in a program of training courses for our partially disabled veterans.

We believe that most of our returning war veterans will want to come back with us. Already, of the 2,768 former Southern Pacific people returned to civilian life, 2,393 have come back to work for their railroad.

These people know that Southern Pacific's war work did not end with the surrender of Japan. Millions of men from overseas must still be returned to their homes.

That so many of our veterans came back to Southern Pacific indicates a determination to finish the job and a faith in our Company's future that makes me, personally, very proud of every one of them.

Proving that "hitch-hiking" is practical, Flight Officer Wallace, Benech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Benech, San Tomas road, arrived home for a brief two-day visit with his family last week. He came by a series of plane hops from Avon Park, Florida, where he is now stationed.

His brother, Pfc. Raymond Benech, who was wounded in Germany, has recovered and is now attending school there. He is a member of the 100th Division.

Private Larry Cowper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Cowper, San Jose-Los Gatos road, arrived home last week on a 10 day furlough after finishing his basic training at Camp Roberts. He will report October 8 at Fort Ord for reassignment.

Mr. F. H. Cutting and his art class spent Tuesday at Felton Big Trees.

"La Boheme" Plays In San Jose Oct. 8

When San Jose hears the San Francisco Opera Company's production of "La Boheme" on the Civic Auditorium stage next Monday night, October 8, it will hear one of the best if not the most perfect performance of the San Francisco's current season, as well as one of the most loved of all operas. According to Alfred Frankenstein of the San Francisco Chronicle, " . . . you seldom hear a better performance than the one given last night at the Opera House . . . Musetta's waltz . . . was sung as a genuine work of art . . . Licia Albanese is about as fragile, delicate and gently perfect a Mimi as you have ever seen . . ."

Added to the utterly lovely Albanese are the incomparable Pinza, Kullman, Baccaloni, Valentino and Cehanovsky. The San Francisco Orchestra, conducted by Gaetano Merola, is a very fine and closely knit body.

Good tickets are still available, as well as standing room.

Guests from Sunnyvale and Santa Cruz were present at the last regular meeting of the Orchard City Grange last September 24 to hear Russell Pettit, general secretary of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce, who was the guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Locke and Mr. R. B. Kummel had charge of the refreshments.

Arranging the next program, October 9, will be Mrs. Ora Lear, chairman of the Orchard City Home Economics. A pot luck dinner will precede the meeting.

Miss Florence Alba Rhoten, daughter of Mrs. Linda Cassingham, San Jose, became the bride of Mr. Albert Merrill, Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Simmons, Orange Cove, at a recent Sunday afternoon wedding at the home of her cousin, Mr. H. G. Schwab, San Tomas road. The ceremony which was attended only by members of the two families was held in the garden with the large entrance door used as a background for the rites. The Rev. Lawrence J. Osborne of the Campbell Methodist church officiated and sang preceding the wedding; Mrs. Ellis Simmons also sang, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Martin.

The bride, who wore a white eyelet gown with a pearl halo securing her finger tip veil, carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white begonias, bouvardia and stephanotis, edged with ribbon. She was given in marriage by her brother, Harold Rhoten.

Mrs. Raymond De Selle and Mrs. Thomas Spivey, sisters of the bride, were her only attendants and also wore white and carried heart-shaped bouquets of red begonias. The bride's niece, Glenda Spivey, was flower girl.

Mr. Simmons was attended by his two brothers, Mr. George W. Simmons, U. S. Army Air Force, Chanute field, and Mr. Ellis Simmons, Redding.

A reception in the garden followed the ceremony with a three-tiered wedding cake, encircled with gardenias and bouvardia, centering the bride's table.

Funeral services were held last week for Mrs. Genevieve Vargus of Half Moon Bay. A daughter, Mrs. Anna Nunes, Campbell, states that her mother died at the age of 115 and had been in good health until her death.

SUPPORT THE WAR CHEST

You'll SEE a BIG Difference
when you put in a
Bright, New Lamp Bulb

Have you checked over the lamp bulbs in your home this year? It pays to do it before lamp bulbs "dim-out" with age and use. For example, check your favorite floor lamp with the three-way globe. Perhaps only one filament is now working and that is why the light it is giving out is not very bright. Or your kitchen light has begun to darken. Or lamp bulbs are missing in other lamps and fixtures. Make a list of the lamps needed. Buy bright, new bulbs. They are cheap to buy and are in plentiful supply. Good lighting is inexpensive. Use Better Light to make your home more cheerful as well as more comforting to your eyes.

Clean all lamp bulbs with a damp cloth and then polish-dry them.

Wash the lamp bowls in sudsy water, as you would fine china.

Give your lamp shades a thorough dusting. It pays.
